Former Lakehead Minister and M.P. Has 'Nothing to Say'

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., No. 12.—(CP)—Rev. Dan McIvor, Liberal member of Parliament for Fort William and former minister of First United Church, had "nothing to say" today regarding an inquiry ordered by the Superior Presbytery of the United Church of Canada into alleged irregularities of a marriage ceremony at the lakehead. He was named as the pastor involved in irregularities.

Rev. A. E. McCutcheon, of Trinity Church, Port Arthur, said Mr. McIvor allegedly performed a marriage of an 18-year-old girl and a soldier after midnight on a Sunday morning. Under the Ontario Marriage Act, a marriage may not be performed between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m.

The inquiry was ordered following receipt of a resolution from Trinity Church.

"I will not say anything at this time", Mr. McIvor stated here, where he is visiting at the home of his son, D. E. McIvor. "If the other ministers had any questions to ask me, they should have done so before I left Port Arthur."

He will return to the lakehead in a day or two.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON—

Purity Priceless Gift To Stabilize Society

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Were tomorrow's newspapers to report that a nation-wide network of Nazi saboteurs had been discovered, with thousands of spies engaged in a plot to destroy all public services and buildings, and to kill tens of thousands of our people, there would immediately follow such a surge of patriotic sentiment and activity as has never been seen before.

Yet a greater enemy, wreaking far more damage to the country as a whole, and to individual lives, is already at work in our midst, and we do little about it. A wave of sexual immorality is sweeping the land. The ancient standards of personal purity are being submerged, destroying the character, the health and the happiness of young lives; disrupting homes, increasing juvenile delinquency, thronging the divorce courts and lowering the moral standards of the nation.

What About God?

Society has come to look lightly upon sexual laxity. A definite pandering to it is to be found in popular novels, in magazines, in plays and—until the Hays organization intervened—in motion pictures. Even in some college classes the subject of "pre-marital sexual experience" was freely discussed. Venereal disease has spread as a plague over the world; and the Archbishop of Canterbury raises his voice to protest that it is generally regarded as a medical problem, instead of a moral problem.

However indulgent popular opinion and practice may be upon this sore subject, there is no mistaking the attitude of God. He wrote, "Thou shalt not commit adultery" into the basic universal and eternal law as a binding Commandment. The first and worst thing to be said about social impurity is that it is a sin against God, that must be answered in His presence. Joseph's reply to the seductions of Potiphar's wife is the response that every person should make to temptation: "How can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?"

Civilization's most beautiful and beneficent fruit is the Christian home, maintained in loyalty to the solemn vows of marriage and to the Law of God and the teachings of Christ. The young man and woman who approach the marriage altar, after having observed the New Testament's injunction, "Keep thyself pure", are contributing the most priceless of all gifts to the stability and success of organized society.

The Root of the Matter.

Jesus went to the root of the matter, insisting that evil thoughts are as evil deeds. He gave the foundation for the later Scripture, "To be carnally minded is death". Evil imaginations are put on the plane with evil actions. In His vigorous teachings there echo the old words, "Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life".

Clean minds are a consequence of Christian consecration. Paul expressed it, "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things".

Sergt. J. D. Graham Of R.C.M.P. Dies

Death claimed one of the popular members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in the person of Staff Sergt. James Delmer Graham, of the fingerprint division, who succumbed to a long illness last evening in the Ottawa Civic Hospital at the age of 48 years.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, and was born at North Gower, receiving his early education in Pakenham. For 27 years he had been an Ottawa citizen, residing at 176 Primrose avenue.

For 29 years he had been a member of the R.C.M.P., serving first in the old Dominion Police Force prior to its transfer to the present organization.

he was in charge of the Masonic

Prominent in Masonic circles, degree team of the R.C.M.P., and was a member of Builders' Lodge, A.F. and A.M., as well as Central City Lodge, of Syracuse, N.Y.

He is survived by his wife, the former Jean Grey, and one son, Taylor Graham.

The funeral will be held from the parlors of George H. Rogers, Limited, 172 Elgin street, on Monday afternoon at 2.30, service being conducted at St. Luke's Church at 3 o'clock with Rev. Cecil Steen officiating. Interment will be made at Beechwood cemetery and R.C.M.P. honors will be accorded.

Lac. Edwin Read Reported Missing

CARP, Nov. 12. — (Special)—LAC. Edwin Read, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Read, 217 Kingsboro road, Rochester, N.Y., and grandson of Mr. Edwin P. Read, of Dunrobin, has been reported missing by the R.C.A.F. headquarters on the Liberator which disappeared on a trip between the Maritimes and Montreal.

The airman, a graduate of West High School and a former employe in the bookkeeping department of the Lincoln Alliance Bank, was one of the last Americans to enlist in the R.C.A.F. He signed up Jan. 29, 1942. The service was closed to Americans two days later.

He was stationed in Newfoundland and it is believed he was coming home on his first leave since joining the R.C.A.F.

The airman's father is a Canadian army veteran of the last war.

LAC. Read was well known in the Dunrobin district, where he spent many Summers with his grandfather.

CHURCH SERVICES

Thou art My servant: I have formed thee; thou art My servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of Me.—Isa. xliv, 21.

Supposing that you were never to be set free from such trials, what would you do? You would say to God, "I am Thine—if my trials are acceptable to Thee, give me more and more". I have full confidence that this is what you would say, and then you would not think more of it—at any rate, you would not be anxious. Well, do the same now. Make friends with your trials, as though you were always to live together; and you will see that when you cease to take thought for your own deliverance, God will take thought for you; and when you cease to help yourself eagerly, He will help you.
