GRANT, William (Bill) Mingaye

At the home of Gordon and Sylvia Grant of Ottawa, Ontario, on Thursday, February 9, 1989. William Mingaye Grant was born in Winnipeg on April 22, 1896, to William Shearer Grant and Mary E. Mingaye. His older brother Herve was killed in France during W.W. I and his younger brother James died after W.W. II. Mingaye attended Kelvin High School in Winnipeg and the University of Manitoba. During W.W. I, he served with the Canadian 52nd Battalion in France and Belgium, where he was gassed at Ypres. After the war, Mingaye married Wilma E. Weir, with whom he had 4 sons. During the twenties and early thirties, he worked in banking, in the Winnipeg Grain Exchange and with the Canada Life Assurance Company. He was also very active in the Gyro Club. In the mid-thirties, Mingaye and his family moved to Toronto where he was employed with the federal Unemployment Insurance Commission. From there he moved to Ottawa, in 1940, and joined the Civil Service Commission, for whom he served until his retirement in 1963. After retiring, he and his wife divided their time between Ottawa and Clearwater, Florida. An active church participant in both areas, Mingaye was a Deacon of Christ Church Cathedral in Ottawa and held a comparable position with the Episcopal Church of the Ascension in Clearwater. Active participants in sports organizations, Mingaye and Wilma were members and officers of the Larrimac Golf and Country Club, alongside the Gatineau River where they owned a summer cottage. In Florida they were active members and officers of the Clearwater Shuffleboard Club. Wilma predeceased him on January 9, 1984, in Clearwater, Florida. Mingaye is survived by his 4 sons; Jim and his wife Jane who reside in Boston, Gordon and his wife Sylvia of Ottawa, Murray and his wife Genevieve who live in Regina and Ian and his wife Toni of London, Ontario, and a former daughter-in-law Shirley Grant of Ottawa. He will be forever lovingly remembered by his 22 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren who are spread across this continent. Mingaye's ashes along with Wilma's will be interred in the family plot in Picton in late spring. A memorial service will be held at Christ Church Cathedral, 439 Queen Street, on Monday, February 13, at 2:30 p.m. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society or a similar charity.

We want to do more than simply say we care.

It is easy to express sympathy in words but showing our concern is often more helpful.

Since 1925, we have been dedicated to showing our personal concern for each family we serve during the funeral. Now, we have found we can demonstrate our concern after the funeral.

We offer families at no cost, many important follow-up services:

- Family Support Centre
- Living Through Grief program first Wed. of every month.
- Ongoing series of "Helping" Seminars.
- Library of Books, Films and Videos.
- Aftercare Counselors to answer questions and assist with details.

We wanted you to know about our Aftercare and feel free to call Miss Teri Boda F.D., our co-ordinator of Aftercare Services.

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

McEvoy-Shields is an entirely locally owned and operated firm which has proudly served this community since 1925.

Our directors are caring and dedicated people.

We are NOT in any way associated with out-of-area conglomerates in the bereavement sector whose intrusive sales approaches, by phone and door, have offended many people.

We support improved consumer legislation and hope the Government of Ontario will act soon to ensure that you, the public, have the maximum protection and choices in arranging either pre-need or at-need funerals.

Please feel free to inquire without obligation.
